

Media Contact:
Susan Williams
Andrew Jackson's Hermitage: Home of the People's President
(615) 889-2941
swilliams@thehermitage.com

SIXTH ANNUAL FALL FEST AT THE HERMITAGE ANNOUNCED
Free celebration of art, music and the history of Tennessee on Oct. 6 and 7

HERMITAGE, Tenn. (Sept. 19, 2018) – Andrew Jackson's Hermitage will host its sixth annual Fall Fest on Saturday, Oct. 6, and Sunday, Oct. 7. The festival is free to the public.

Fall Fest at The Hermitage is a spectacular weekend of art, music and history. Proceeds from the festival benefit the many projects and programs at Andrew Jackson's Hermitage.

This year's family-friendly event includes nearly more than 60 outstanding artists and craftsmen, live music, and the Ajax's Family Area, where children and adults can participate in historical and cultural activities. The family area will include a musical petting zoo from the Country Music Hall of Fame, a puppet truck featuring Nashville Public Library's Wishing Chair Productions, face painting and more. Food and drink vendors will also be on-site offering taste-tempting fare to complete your day.

"Fall Fest is one of our most well-attended events of the year as it combines family-friendly seasonal activities with arts and historical appreciation," said Howard J. Kittell, the president and CEO of Andrew Jackson's Hermitage. "This weekend is a great opportunity for our community to come together and enjoy fall in Tennessee."

Admission to the event is free to the public, and all proceeds from the festival will benefit Andrew Jackson's Hermitage. The festival is open Saturday, Oct. 6, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Sunday, Oct. 7, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Museum admission is not included with entry to Fall Fest. For more information on Fall Fest, visit www.fallfestatthehermitage.com. For a complete calendar of events at The Hermitage, visit thehermitage.com/events/.

WHAT: Sixth Annual Fall Fest at The Hermitage

WHEN: Saturday, Oct. 6, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Sunday, Oct. 7, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

WHERE: Andrew Jackson's Hermitage, 4580 Rachel's Lane, Hermitage, TN 37076

About Andrew Jackson's Hermitage

Andrew Jackson's Hermitage: Home of the People's President is one of the largest, most well-preserved and most visited presidential homes in the United States. Opened to the public in 1889, The Hermitage is one of America's first presidential museums. Today, The Hermitage is a 1,120-acre National Historic Landmark with 27 historic buildings, including Jackson's mansion and tomb, restored slave cabins, a church, and gardens. In recent years, new interpretive initiatives and educational programs such as the history of slavery have enhanced the experience of the 228,157 visitors in FY 2018. For more information, visit www.thehermitage.com.

###