Andrew Jackson's Hermitage Tickets $5 Off for Tennessee Residents During September

Promotion is a 'thank you' to local visitors

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (Aug. 31, 2018) – As a thank you to Tennessee residents who help make Andrew Jackson's Hermitage a top destination in Tennessee, the presidential home and museum is offering all Tennessee residents $5 off admission for the month of September.

Through the USA Today's "10Best Readers' Choice 2018" poll, The Hermitage was ranked as one of the top 10 Tennessee attractions. TripAdvisor also ranks it among the top 10 Tennessee attractions, and since 2011, attendance at the presidential home has increased every year.

“With our Love Local promotion, we would like to stop and thank all of the Tennessee residents who visit The Hermitage and who come back and bring others,” said Howard J. Kittell, president and CEO of the Andrew Jackson Foundation.

“It is through the support of our visitors and all who donate to the Foundation that we are able to keep up our preservation work and continue to create engaging educational programs. This promotion is just one small way we'd like to say thank you.”

To redeem the discount, Tennessee residents can use the promo code LOVELOCAL during online checkout. On site, Tennessee residents may show their driver's license at the ticket office to receive the discount. The limit is two per transaction.

About Andrew Jackson's Hermitage

Andrew Jackson's Hermitage: Home of the People's President is one of the largest, most well-preserved and most visited presidential homes in the United States. Opened to the public in 1889, The Hermitage is one of America's first presidential museums. Today, The Hermitage is a 1,120-acre National Historic Landmark with 27 historic buildings, including Jackson's mansion and tomb, restored slave cabins, a church, and gardens. In recent years, new interpretive initiatives and educational programs such as the history of slavery have enhanced the experience of the 228,157 visitors in FY 2018. For more information, visit www.thehermitage.com.
