Summer Camp returns to The Hermitage

Reserve a spot today for an educational adventure into a pirate's life

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (March 18, 2019) – For the first time in nearly a decade, Andrew Jackson's Hermitage will offer a weeklong summer camp program, and this time around it is all about pirates. The program will provide an educational and interactive look into what a pirate's life looked like and how pirates played a role in Andrew Jackson's success at the Battle of New Orleans in 1812.

The summer camp program will run from Monday, July 8, to Friday, July 12, from 8 a.m. to noon. Campers will learn about secret identities, communicating in codes, navigating waterways and the other necessities it took to become a pirate. Their skills will be put to the test as they partake in a mock battle. Snacks will also be provided.

The cost per child is $125. Early drop-off is available beginning at 7 a.m. with an extra cost of $40 for the week, as well as $20 for any additional siblings in attendance. The program is recommended for children ages 8 to 12. Space is limited. Be sure to make your camper's reservation today!

Daily Programs

- Day 1: A Pirate's Life for Me!
- Day 2: Navigation and Orienteering
- Day 3: Living a Secret Life
- Day 4: Power of a Pirate
- Day 5: Battle of New Orleans

About Andrew Jackson's Hermitage

Andrew Jackson's Hermitage: Home of the People's President is one of the largest and most visited presidential homes in the United States. Opened as a museum in 1889, it is one of the nation's oldest presidential sites, drawing more than 228,000 visitors each year. Located 12 miles northeast of downtown Nashville, The Hermitage is a 1,120-acre National Historic Landmark with 27 restored sites and structures, 12 dating to Jackson's ownership, including his 1836 mansion and tomb, slave cabins, garden, and the church he had constructed for his beloved wife, Rachel. In the Andrew Jackson Center, guests can experience Andrew Jackson: Born for a Storm, an interactive exhibit about the life and profound impact of our seventh president on the history of the United States. Admission is free for active duty military and half-price for veterans. For more information, visit www.thehermitage.com.
